I would like to see all pokie machines removed from all TABs and Pubs in Kapiti and throughout NZ. They are harmful to everyone financially and mind-wise. They create an addiction and children and animals end up with less food and other necessities of life. All these pokies do is create misery, neglect, mental illness etc etc.

Need to be careful not to adopt a "nanny" approach to these matters... gambling is quite legal, and largely up to individual choice . Many do not go to pokies but take lotto tickets, or maybe go to the races. Again their choice. So, we don't need a proliferation of gambling opportunities, but nor should we aim to eliminate/remove peoples rights. Otherwise, should we ensure no one can spend more than $10 on lotto , scratchies, bingo, etc in any week??

Unfortunately, the too many people who indulge in gambling, using gambling machines and TAB, are the ones who can least afford to. This leads to deprivation of and conflict within their families, and the sad consequences that manifest.

Firstly gaming is already a highly regulated operation ie by the DIA and local council's Most Class 4 gaming is carried out in Incorporated clubs who are required to abide by the DIA harm minimization regulations which are already highly prescriptive. People who want to gamble will find a way to do so irrespective of government restrictions so it is better that it is conducted in a controlled environment. Secondly the income from Gaming is used for Government stipulated authorised purposes which includes funding the clubs involved who in turn provide venues for recreation and socialisation for all members and guests, not just the gamblers. The present cap is perfectly adequate for the current situation and the suggested sinking lid is overkill.

I have friends that have struggled for years with gambling addiction. Had there not been a gambling venue near where they live they never would have had a gambling problem. Pokies are designed to be addictive. Accessibility should be restricted to minimise harm for the collective wellbeing of all peoples and communities particularly Māori. Gambling is also a unsustainable value system that tenets a society of winners and losers.

I believe all gambling machines should be closed down. It's madness that they are allowed in our community. The excuse is that most of the money comes back to the community but at what cost to families who gamble

There is no pressure on the current cap of venues and machines but leaving the policy as a cap with relocations allows for future economic growth. Changing the policy to a sinking lid will have no impact on the current operating numbers.

The proceeds from gaming have been extremely beneficial to our organisation and has allowed us to fund projects or capital expenditure such as machinery replacement and course improvements that we might not otherwise have been able to achieve. This has allowed us to provide a facility that benefits the community in a positive way and provides a valuable asset. We believe in responsible gambling and feel that the authorities have measures in place to deal with this and that Trusts are actively promoting programs that minimise harm. Such problem gambling could easily transfer away from a regulated venue to online type gambling which is unregulated or simply shift to another venue. A reduction in machines and venues would severely impact on community organisations (and already has in the past when venues or machines have been lost) which have limited means of generating this type of income from either internal (members) or external (other funding providers). This would affect sports clubs, schools, not for profits and the like and would have a major impact on the community that would far exceed the minimal negative impacts of any problem gambling.

AFS endorses option 3, which aims to prevent the establishment of new venues and Electronic Gaming Machines (EGMs). Additionally, we support the council's decision to eliminate the relocation provision, following the Waikiwi precedent. We urge the council to take a more proactive approach by enhancing their sinking lid policy to disallow venue mergers. Such a policy, devoid of relocation and club merger provisions, offers superior protection for those vulnerable to gambling harm and represents the most effective public health strategy for councils seeking to mitigate gambling-related harm in their communities. AFS supports the submission made by PGF Group on Kāpiti Coast District Council's Class 4 Gaming and TAB Venue Policy Review 2023.

I agree with your proposal about gambling venues, especially in poverty-deprived areas. All of these habits (smoking/vaping, gambling, drinking) are addictive and cause family, individual and social harm in our society. All of these addictions can lead to harmful behaviours if they are available and affordable.
